In the past episode, ANNA's sister EVE PATRICK started having a baby and called her husband but he wasn't answering. So she drove herself to the hospital and she collided with a big semi that was pulling into her lane. A lady who saw her called the ambulance. They brought her to the hospital and she gave birth to a baby. After. Her husband ROB was at a bar trying to pick up the waitress while she was waiting to call him. The hospital called and he answered that call. He got to the hospital for the birth. All is fine. That is, his wife is fine. Then he wants to go look for the baby but she is missing. The nurse cannot tell him anything because they can't find the baby. He's told to go wait in the waiting room. While there, a woman tells him that she saw the baby while she was sitting there. She thinks a man and woman stole the baby. He calls the police. He doesn't think the hospital staff will do that quickly.
